

Farmers Face Bankruptcy And Ruin Due To The Drop In Crop Prices, Is Alleged

Appeal For Immediate Assistance

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 13.—“General bankruptcy and ruin are inevitable,” unless some immediate remedy is found to relieve the present dire situation as it affects the farmer, says a report submitted to the agricultural conference here today by a committee appointed to study the situation.

The report was adopted by the conference without a dissenting vote. The committee blames the federal reserve system for present prices, charging that it has arbitrarily withdrawn from assisting the local industry of this country to maintain a level of prices that at least met the cost of production.

Declaring that the condition of the mind of the farm population is “ominous,” the committee says, “this state of mind can only be changed by a frank and fair attitude on the part of those in authority—the test of which can be only their acts.”

The committee says it is wrong as a matter of policy artificially to press down prices of commodities and it is particularly wrong to begin with the raw commodities for such a program inevitably forces upon the producer the heaviest burden of reconstruction and readjustment.

The report of the committee says the present situation was brought about by the following official acts: “Restriction of credits.” “Raising the rate of discount on farm products.” “Discontinuance of the war finance commission.”

The statements given out by the secretary of the treasury, the governor of the federal reserve board and the federal reserve banks have been construed to the effect that “commodity prices, particularly the price of farm products, were too high and that a price basis, or an approximation of a price basis, of prices must be reached within a short time. The consequent effect of these utterances upon the member banks of the federal reserve system and the banking industry of the country generally was to cause them to withhold accommodations because of the fear that the security given would necessarily decline.”

“The action of the federal reserve board in calling the bonds held by member banks as part of the commercial credit of the banks holding these bonds, thereby enormously decreasing the power of such banks to extend the needed credits to the agricultural industry of their respective communities.”

“Your committee feels that the officials of the treasury department and the federal reserve system have exercised their authority when they publicly announced opinion as to prices of farm products which have resulted in disastrous price reductions.”

“The committee recommends that the rate of discount for the marketing of the agricultural products be made as low as justified by a sound business and that the rate be not changed during the period of crop marketing. If the federal reserve officers will take such action at once, the report says, with particular reference to a more liberal policy in extending credits for the encouragement of exports, we believe that the distress and unrest among the farmers of the country will be greatly relieved.”

Get 'Em Out Of Moth Balls! A Cold Snap Is Predicted

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 13.—Warning of another cold snap in the northern and middle sections of the country within a few days was given today by the weather bureau in a special bulletin, which said: “The indications at this time are that the prolonged spell of exceptionally fine weather over the middle western and western states will shortly end. A disturbance of wide-spread influence is moving east-southeastward along the southern Alaskan coast and its influence will be felt on the Washington and Oregon coast within the next 24 to 36 hours, where it will be attended by rains and gales. It will cross the middle west at the end of the week, attended by unsettled weather and rain and with a probability of local snow storm in the northwest.”

“Following this disturbance the temperature will fall and the coldest weather of the season up to this time will prevail generally in the northern and middle sections of the country.”

“CURB MARKET” IN NEW YORK FOR SELLING LIQUOR

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—Frank I. Boyd, supervising prohibition enforcement agent for New York state, has received orders from federal headquarters in Washington to investigate the reports of the existence of a “cure market” in contraband liquor in the Bowery. It was learned today, Pressed for confirmation of the reports, Mr. Boyd admitted he had heard about the matter.

According to published reports, the traffic in liquor in this section has become so thriving that the hands of bootleggers engaged in supplying saloons and “speakeasies” have hit upon the plan of modifying their market after the curb market of the financial district, in order to facilitate transactions.

Within a short distance from police headquarters large transactions in liquor are said to have been made, the actual supplies being kept elsewhere in trucks ready for immediate delivery.

Officials Believe “The Crank’s” Confession Clears Up Mystery

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., October 13.—Satisfied that the mystery surrounding the kidnapping of June 2, of Blake, Coughlin, the 12-month-old son of George H. Coughlin, of Norristown, has been cleared up by the confession of August Pasquale, the authorities today began preparations of their case against “The Crank” for presentation to the Montgomery county court.

Mr. Coughlin also said he felt the case had been cleared up. “I am very much relieved now that the tension is broken,” he declared. “The suspense of living the rest of my life without sure knowledge of the fate of my boy is now settled. I am glad it is over.”

Pasquale, according to Major Ignatius A. Adams, lead of the state police, confessed that he smothered the child while making his escape with it under his coat and threw the body to the Schuylkill river. Evidences of a fire on the river bank nearby, where he told the authorities he burned the child’s clothing, were discovered, but no trace of the body was found and officials believe none ever will be. They say after being in the water more than four months, it undoubtedly has decomposed and disappeared.

TESTIFIES NYE TOLD HIM TO STAY AWAY FROM WAVERLY PRIMARY DAY

Issue In Connecticut Is Neither Cox Nor Harding,
But Senator Brandegee

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
(Copyright by Times Publishing Co.)
HARTFORD, Conn., Oct. 13.—The issue in Connecticut is neither Cox nor Harding but Brandegee, who is desperately struggling for re-election to the United States Senate, where he has served for fifteen years. Woman suffrage, which Senator Brandegee consistently opposed, has made the race uncertain. It isn’t that Brandegee fought woman suffrage, but the way he fought it. His alleged contemptuous attitude toward the suffrage forces has stirred indignation even among Republican women. Besides that he has arrayed against him the people who want to see the League of Nations established either with or without reservations. Senator Brandegee has been from the outset a member of the “irreconcilable” group which has opposed any League of Nations. Senator Lodge and McCormick have made speeches here supporting the anti-League views and Senator Johnson is coming to help later on. Senator Lodge has appealed in person to the people of this state for Brandegee. There is no doubt that the seat of Senator Brandegee has been and is in danger.

The outcome depends largely on the size of Harding’s majority. For the state will go Republican by a decisive vote. If it should give a 50,000 majority to Harding, Brandegee will be swept into office with the tide. It seems to be expected that he will run far back as 30,000. Then Congressman Augustine Longenecker, the Democratic nominee, may appear in person to the people of this state for Brandegee. There is no doubt that the seat of Senator Brandegee has been and is in danger.

Many of the friends of Longenecker fear that the women of the state will not make use of their opportunity to defeat Brandegee as the voting machines are employed here and there seems to be an impression that females entering the polling booths and doing what so many male voters have done in other states—namely, vote a straight ticket because they cannot figure out how to cut or scratch a candidate.

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 13.—Evidence of “practically indiscriminate killing” of Haitian natives by United States marines, was brought to the attention of Colonel John H. Russell, commanding the marine forces in Haiti, in a confidential letter written by Major General George Barnett, commandant of the corps in October, 1919, calling for a thorough investigation of conditions.

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 13.—Approximately 3,250 armed Haitian bandits have been killed by United States marines or Haitian guards during the five and a half years of American occupation. Brigadier General George Barnett, former commandant of the marine corps, says in a report made public today by Secretary Daniels.

Total marine corps casualties to date were shown to be one officer and 12 enlisted men killed, and two officers and 26 enlisted men wounded.

General Barnett, who prepared the report by direction of the naval secretary, says it is impossible to even estimate the number of Haitians wounded in the engagements with the marines and gendarmes, local troops organized and officered by the marine corps.

Of the total Haitians killed, 1563 met death in the bandit attack on Port Au Prince and during the operations immediately following that attack, according to the report.

ATHENS, Oct. 12.—The condition of King Alexander of Greece, who has been ill several days, the result of the bite of a monkey, was given in the bulletin of his physicians issued during the morning as follows: “The king was again seized with a fit at eight o’clock last evening. His temperature at 11 p. m. was 104.7, becoming lower without the use of drugs and reaching approximately 100 at 8 o’clock this morning. The general condition was unchanged.”

An Athens dispatch giving slightly later information than that contained in the bulletin quoted in the foregoing, in this country Tuesday night, stated the king had entered the critical phase of his illness and that the doctors were relying only on his strong constitution to bring him through.

Republican Victory Of 1918 Won By False Pretense-Daniels

DENVER, N. C., October 13.—The Republican victory of 1918 was won by “false pretense” and when five million men were away from home in the army or navy or engaged in war work, Secretary Daniels declared here today in a campaign speech.

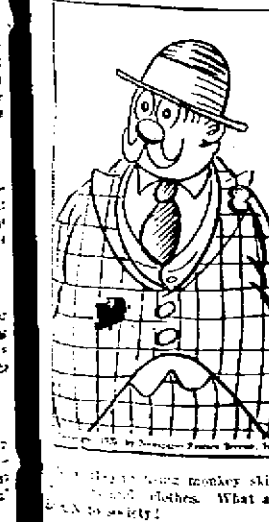

“The house was won by the home vote and the senate was won by purchase,” he declared, adding “The soldiers and sailors will vote as they shot, and not many of them can be persuaded to vote for any man who favored bringing lasting dishonor on America by a separate peace with Germany. They know they went to war to end war. They know the way to end war is to join the League of Nations.”

“The attitude of the fighters of America is for a covenant of peace. The attitude of the straddlers who never went to war or appropriated its holy passion is for selfishness and compromise.”

Secretary Daniels said that this attitude of real fighters was well expressed by Colonel Charles W. Whitely, who commanded the “lost battalion,” and told the Germans “to go to hell,” when asked to surrender his command.

“I’m not frightened by Article X,” said Colonel Whitely. Secretary Daniels continued, “I am not afraid of internationalism, the bogey of those who oppose the league. We are already international and there is no way to help it, even if we wanted to. Our obligations to the world are already fixed and we cannot avoid them. We may resist a world movement for a time, but it will come.”

The first to start were Bankie and Mille Denier, two thoroughbreds from the United States remount station, ridden by Lieutenant T. H. McGarry and Major Stanley Kech, who left at 5:30. Four Arabians of the Brown strain were next. The last horse out was Bank, an Arabian, which Major J. L. Massingher up.

LIFE WAS A MISERY TO HER

Says this Woman Until Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Carrollton, Ky.—"I suffered almost two years with female weakness. I could not walk any distance, ride or take any exercise at all without resting. If I swept the floor or did any kind of work it would bring me down. I was weak, languid, had no energy and life was a misery to me. I was under the care of a good physician for several months and tried other remedies. I had read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it. After taking twelve bottles I found myself much improved and I took six more. I have never had any more trouble in that respect since. I have done all kinds of work and at present am an attendant at a State Hospital and am feeling fine. I have recommended your Vegetable Compound to dozens of my friends and shall always recommend it."

BUREAU WILL COLLECT WASTE PAPER

In closing out the industrial and waste paper features of Wesley Hall Mission, the undersigned wishes to announce on behalf of the directors, that the Bureau of Community Service will continue the industrial side of the work.

The aim of salvage collecting is this: Used furniture, worn clothing and shoes are collected. These things are repaired and sold at a very moderate price to people who could not buy otherwise.

In case of actual need, articles are given away. The truck on the same trips bring in paper, rags and metal in, sufficient quantities to meet the cost of collecting and part of the expense of administration.

As a constructive work of social service and of necessities relief, the Bureau is even better prepared to carry on this work than Wesley Hall.

The directors of the former Mission, in thanking the public for its support, urge an even larger response to the appeals of the Bureau for these things you no longer want, but that others need.

Until further notice, calls for the truck may be phoned to 1715.

The NEWGATE

Some men prefer pointed toes, others a medium round toe; a great many ask for the conservative broad toe blucher.

Our stock is varied enough to permit every man to choose his favorite style. This cut shows the Newgate, a medium round toe, made of dark brown kangaroo stock, very soft and pliable, that wears like buckskin. Pointed or wide toes if you wish. Better see this shoe for the man who cares.

Anderson's Celebration Sale

We Dressed the Store Up---Now We Are Dressing the Prices Down

prices will speak louder and more effectively than any printer's ink. You can only realize the advantages this sale will be to you by coming.

HEIDER COMING

Portsmouth's premier hostess, Fred Heider will be the honor guest at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon Thursday.

dry noon in the basement of the Unit of Brethren church. Judging from the way members are gathering there the attendance at this forum will surpass all records for attendance at such meetings.

Heider will not be the only visitor present for he sent word to the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday that in all twelve members of the famous "Listen Lester" company would be present. Included in the twelve will be the "Listen Lester" quartet which is one of the hits of the show. Mr. Heider er and his friends will not only be present as guests but as entertainers as well. The quartet is composed of William Renard, bass, Lloyd Balliet, baritone, John Simon, first tenor and John Bower, second tenor.

When it comes to advertising, Heider is a genius. He has introduced scores of novel advertising methods in his own line of endeavor and he never forgets to add "Boost Portsmouth, Ohio." Fred Heider left Portsmouth six years ago and since that time his name has appeared in electric lights in front of many theatres from New York City down. He has reached stardom as a comedy entertainer through ability plus pluck and honest effort and through it all he has never forgotten to boost Portsmouth.

NEW BOSTON MAY GET WOODMEN'S CIRCLE

Mrs. Carrie Johnson of Pine Street New Boston has left for Cincinnati to meet with the Supreme Master of the Woodmen Circle. She is taking up with the Supreme Master the matter of starting a Woodmen's Circle at New Boston.

Doesn't Worry Them. Shortage of paper does not worry the persons who visit the hostess only to write letters on hotel stationery.

Another Doctrine Fails. The so-called decline in the art of conversation somehow fails to carry the idea of a corresponding improvement in the art of listening.—Newark News.

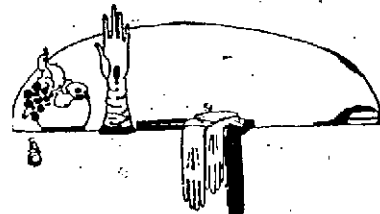

No Need to Tell Him That

"Yes," said the young wife proudly, "father always gives something expensive when he makes presents." "So I discovered when he gave you away," rejoined the young husband. And with a large, open-faced sigh he continued to audit the monthly bills of his quarter half.—Stray Stories.

What "Peaves" a Jurymen.

We have served on several juries, and our experience has been that when the witnesses made fools of us we bore it easily; but when the lawyers got up to rub it in with the final arguments, only the fear of a contempt fine kept us from doing murder right there.—Kansas City Star.

NEWS FROM RARDEN

RARDEN, Oct. 13—More than one hundred persons attended the meeting of the Grange lodge held at Red Men's hall Thursday evening. A splendid program was rendered consisting of speech making, songs and instrumental music and a feature of the occasion was a feast which was enjoyed at the close of the program. The program was highly entertaining and was participated in by both young and old and all in all was a most pleasant affair.

The Grange of Pebles has extended an invitation to the members of the local grange to be their guests at a similar gathering to be held there within the near future.

The Rarden schools are now progressing nicely, being thoroughly organized with a full complement of teachers.

Mrs. A. B. McBride, who recently sustained a broken leg in a fall, is recovering from her injury, although slowly owing to her advanced age.

Mrs. D. A. Gardner was called to McDermott recently when a serious accident befell one of the children of her son, Edgar Gardner. The child sustained a broken collar bone in a fall.

Sherman Koch is beautifying his Main street home with a coat of paint. Vernon Christian is wielding the brush.

Jacob Miller, who has been a helpless invalid for the past 25 years due to rheumatism, has removed with his family from the Thompson farm, east of the village, to his father's place at Ruffer Hill.

Squire J. N. Bates has not fully recovered from the effects of an injury he sustained several days ago when he was violently thrown from a horse against a fence.

Robert Schuler, local merchant, who entered a Cincinnati hospital several weeks ago for treatment, is improving slowly and expects to be able to leave the institution soon and come home.

Edward Wright has returned home after an absence of several months during which time he was employed in a manufacturing plant at Hamilton.

The Democratic rally held on the public square Saturday morning was well attended and the speakers were given close attention. The concert given by the River City band preceding the speaking was a treat to many and the stirring tunes recalled to memory the lively campaign of McKinley and Bryan in 1896.

Any person in favor of law enforcement who neglects to register on either Friday or Saturday of this week cannot vote on November 2nd against the moonshiners and bootleggers.

FARMERS TO HOLD COMMUNITY FAIR

Opening guns were fired last night at Empire Grange hall on Pine Creek five miles from Wheelersburg in preparation for what will go down in history as one of the largest and best community fairs that was ever put on in Southern Ohio.

It will consist of displays of farm products, fruits, canned goods, farm work, and boys and girls' food club exhibits, all of which will be shown in the Grange hall and school house. The stock show to be held outside will be worth driving the full length of the county to see as present indications are that at least one hundred head of livestock will be on the grounds. The Big Club boys and girls will also show their exhibits at this fair.

There are not so many of them this year but they are all going to win and a good show is assured them.

L. A. Kaufman, County Agent of the Jackson County will judge the livestock.

He knows how to place them and then tells the reason why. He won the highest honors at the Chicago International Livestock show last year by being first in a student's judging contest with 110 competitors from all parts of the United States.

This show is to be strictly educational and Mr. Kaufman will discuss the good and bad features of the different animals as he places them. No prize money will be given but ribbons will be given those placed first and second in their respective classes.

The farm products and fruits will be judged by Geo. A. Dastman, County Agent of Lawrence County. Mr. Dastman's experience in judging farm products and fruits at numerous county fairs makes him a competent man for this job.

In talking with President Dan Oakes and Sec'y, E. B. Lanza they emphasized the fact that all classes were open to any one in the county or state in fact they said in the world. No entry fee.

Everybody in the county is invited to boost the fair.

Forney and alleges that Hostwick sold liquor to one Jack Parker.

Hostwick will be given a hearing before Judge Small.

It Was Pay Day

Everybody was happy around the D. & O. offices and yards today. It was pay day.

Investigating Robbery

Sheriff E. E. Hickey and Deputy Harry M. Dunham were at the scene of the Unger robbery, on the Seboto trail, early this morning, conducting an investigation.

Fourteen garments were stolen from the Unger Dry Cleaning plant early Tuesday morning. The place was entered from a side window.

Deputy Sheriff Dunham has found a white and a man's coat lying beneath the window through which the place was entered. Wheel tracks of a wagon were plainly discernible in the mud beside the building, and Deputy Dunham is following what he thinks is a good clue.

Mrs. J. E. Simpson of 1109 Front street who underwent an operation in Grant hospital Columbus four weeks ago has returned to her home. She is getting along as well as could be expected.

PIPELESS CALORIC FURNACE

A Practical, Efficient Method of Heating Without Pipes Through Only One Register

What It Does

The CALORIC, the Original Patented Pipeless Furnace, heats your entire home, new or old, three rooms to eighteen, through one register.

The CALORIC heats uniformly and thoroughly. Whether your house be of the bungalow type, with all rooms on one floor, or two or three stories high—all the rooms will be warm and comfortable.

The CALORIC saves from one-third to one-half of your fuel. The same amount of coal, coke or wood which will heat two or three rooms with stoves, will heat the entire house through the CALORIC. Or, if you are now heating your entire house, the CALORIC will do the same work better with one-half to two-thirds as much fuel.

The CALORIC is easily and quickly installed in any house, new or old, and without interfering with your present heating system. Where there is no cellar, a pit can be dug large enough to hold the furnace and the fuel supply.

The CALORIC reduces fire risk, as all the heat comes up through the center of the register, while the cool air is constantly passing down through the outer part of the register, where it comes in contact with the floor.

Over fifty thousand enthusiastic owners from Portland, Maine to Portland, Oregon, testify that the CALORIC is and does all and more than we claim. The CALORIC is also giving splendid results in stores, factories, churches and halls. Can you afford not to investigate?

-and How It Does It

The CALORIC is not a pipe furnace with the pipes left off, and neither is it an experiment hastily put together for the purpose of meeting a demand. It is specially designed and built from the ground up to heat buildings more uniformly, economically and satisfactorily than they have ever been heated by other systems.

The CALORIC works through Nature's own laws of circulation by the movement of air currents. Warm air rises naturally. Cold air falls. Warm air and cold air cannot occupy the same space at the same time, any more than cold water and warm water can do so.

In the same volume that the warm air is distributed into the house, an equal amount of cold air is drawn into the furnace, where it is heated, moistened by the vapor from the two gallon water pan, and then recirculated through the register. This process continues as long as the fire is kept burning.

Thus there is created a constant circulation of properly moistened warm air. Just as running water purifies itself, so this circulating warm air, passing constantly through heat of from three hundred to eight hundred degrees, in which no germ can live, is kept pure and healthful.

Now this is merely an outline of the principles of operation of the CALORIC. A full description is given in an interesting and instructive manner in our CALORIC Catalog. Call at our store, phone or write us for a copy.

The CALORIC is manufactured and guaranteed by The Monitor Stove Co., Cincinnati, Ohio, makers of heating appliances for 99 years.

BETTER THAN WHISKEY FOR COLDS AND FLU

New Elixir, Called Aspirinol, Medicated With Latest Scientific Remedies, Used and Endorsed by European and American Army Surgeons to Cut Short a Cold and Prevent Complications.

Every Druggist in U. S. Instructed to Refund Price While You Wait at Counter If Relief Does not Come Within Two Minutes

Delightful Taste, Immediate Relief, Quick Warm-Up.

The sensation of the year in the drug trade is Aspirinol, the two-minute cold and cough reliever, authoritatively guaranteed by the laboratories, tested, approved and most enthusiastically endorsed by the highest authorities, and proclaimed by the common people as ten times as quick and effective as whiskey, rock and eye, or any other cold and cough remedy they have ever tried.

All drug stores are now supplied with the wonderful new elixir, so all you have to do to get rid of that cold is to step into the nearest drug store, hand the clerk half a dollar for a bottle of Aspirinol and tell him to serve you two teaspoonfuls with four teaspoonfuls of water in a glass. With your watch in your hand, take the drink at once swallow and call for your money back in two minutes. If you cannot feel your cold fading away like a dream within the time limit, don't be haphazard, for all druggists invite you and expect you to try it. Everybody's doing it.

When your cold or cough is relieved, take the remainder of the bottle home to your wife and babies, for Aspirinol is by far the safest and most effective, the easiest to take and the most agreeable cold and cough remedy for infants and children.—Adv.

FRANK MAYO

A Great Romance of Old Days on the Mississippi

HITCHIN' POSTS

HERE'S a picture that carries the vivid rush of drama that was part of the Old South—a picture with a charm as quaint and appealing as its old-fashioned romance; yet withal as exciting and thrilling as its gambling games in which vast estates—and lives—were the stake.

Directed by Jack Ford from the Story by RH Shumaker. The character of Jefferson Todd, gentleman gambler, will never fade from your memory.

To The Eastland Theatre Tonight For Two Nights Comes Our Most Popular Star, Frank Mayo in His Newest Picture, "Hitchin' Posts." A Thrilling Romance of Old Days on the Mississippi—A Picture of the Old South With Its Duels, Its Horses and Its Women—Don't Miss It—Other Attractions.

At the Eastland theatre tonight theatergoers will again have an opportunity to see their favorite star, Frank Mayo, in his latest screen success, "Hitchin' Posts." In this drama of the South and the West Mr. Mayo is said to present another of those cleverly drawn character portraits for which he is famous and which make each of his photographs different from any other in which he appeared.

In "Hitchin' Posts" Frank Mayo appears as Jefferson Todd, a southern gentleman who finds himself penniless after the war and who is compelled to take up gambling as a profession, playing his skill at cards on the steamboats that ply the Mississippi River. The first big scene of the story occurs when Todd wins from Colonel Brecken his last possessions, four race horses, resulting in the old man's suicide.

WILLIAM FARNUM

A Big Sacrifice of Brother for Sister Is "Heart Strings" the Wm. Farnum Feature at the Lincoln Tonight.

In nothing that he ever did on stage or screen has William Farnum given a more convincing demonstration of his versatility than he gives in "Heart Strings," the Fox production at the Lincoln tonight. The public, most familiar with Farnum as the robust blazing, fighting hero, here has him presented as a tender, sensitive, not only a composer, but a wonderful master of the violin.

There is a contrast as striking as it is affecting, woven into a story of marvellous heart interest, yet thrilling throughout with the force of his dramatic moments. Mr. Farnum's performance is one of exquisite finish and tender appeal.

Also a reel of educational pictures.

tonight Fox will present William Farnum in a romantic drama of the days when knights were bold, entitled "The Adventurer." It was written by E. Lloyd Sheldon, and is based upon the adventures of an impetuous count who lived in Spain at a time when gentlemen waged everything on the treasures of Mexico and Peru. In those days duelling was popular, and the man who would not draw his sword to avenge an insult or protect a woman was a cad.

The hero is the rollicking type of romantic lover that suits admirably the great actor, who is seen as Don Cesar de Razon.

Also a comedy and Ruth Hotchkiss.

Diabetes Sufferers Should Not Give Up In Despair

Warner's Safe Diabetes Remedy has brought health and happiness to many who thought themselves beyond aid.

Diabetes is a peculiar and baffling disease which the medical profession seems to be unable to cure despite the many years of experimenting and research by foremost physicians through our world.

Diabetes is invariably the result of impaired nutrition—this results in an excess of sugar in the blood and failure of the food to nourish, hence a gradual wasting away while eating well.

Symptoms of the disease are, increased thirst, excess of urine, emaciation and dryskin, often with sweetish odor.

Following are a few voluntary words of praise from a man who has used Warner's Safe Diabetes Cure with gratifying results. Perhaps you may be benefited in a like manner.

"I had been troubled with Diabetes for 8 years. I heard about Warner's Safe Diabetes Remedy and I tried some of it and got myself in good condition and went to work again. One man said he doctored for 2 years and that one bottle of Warner's Safe Diabetes Remedy did him more good than all the doctors. I am much pleased and so thankful for your life-saving remedy that I cheerfully recommend it to anyone troubled with Diabetes and I hope this will be the cause of helping many sufferers." (Signed) James Platt, Nat'l Military Home, Dayton, Ohio.

Warner's Safe Diabetes Remedy is made from a formula tried and tested and used with remarkable results during the past 40 years. As the name indicates, Warner's Safe Diabetes Remedy is absolutely safe and is made solely from herbs and other beneficial ingredients.

Breaking The News Gently

HIGH SPOTS IN SPORTS

Pre-series predictions that the recent baseball scandal would seriously affect the national game were disproved by the spirit and enthusiasm of the crowds that gathered at Brooklyn and Cleveland to see the world's series. Hundreds of people waited outside the Times daily to get the baseball returns play by play and results were given out by phone to large numbers of interested fans.

Stanley Coveleskie, the big Pole pitcher of the Tribe, was the pitching star of the series, winning all three games he started and sharing the winning pitcher honors with Mulls and Bagby.

The Cleveland team made six errors in the last two games of the crucial series, three in each, but luckily they did not prove costly and the Tribe won handily in spite of them.

In the eighth inning of the final game yesterday, with Jamieson on second, Munnas, purposely passed, Tris Speaker and Elmer Smith to take a chance at Larry Gardner, and his launch worked as the Indian third baseman forced Smith Kilduff to Kennedy. Ordinarily it would have taken a great deal of nerve to do this as Larry is a dangerous hitter and has broken up a great many games with his mighty stick, but Munnas was desperate and probably figured the situation couldn't grow much worse.

The Cleveland Indians scored 21 runs in the seven games played against the Tribe, while the Brooklyn Dodgers scored only 10 runs. The first and fourth innings of the games were the most profitable for the world's champions, the Tribe garnering six runs in the first inning and six runs in the fourth inning. The Dodgers scored three runs in the first inning.

The Cleveland Indians certainly deserved to win the world's championship, for in so doing they were forced to surmount many strong obstacles in capturing first the American League and later the world's championship. The first was the lack of a good south-paw pitcher throughout the season and the unexpected death of Ray Chapman. But three were over-ruled when Mulls and Seaver were secured. And then, coming back to Cleveland with the count two to one against them, they stuck their backs against the wall and won four straight games.

No team can ever hope to win a world's series that makes only 5 runs in 7 games. That is what Brooklyn did against Cleveland pitching. The Dodgers started out with a rush, but they finished disappointingly to admirers of the National League.

A committee from Ohio State University will come to Portsmouth soon to discuss the interests of the new million dollar stadium to be erected on a 92-acre tract in the rear of the University.

An active campaign will be made among the Ohio State graduates in the city as well as with prominent local citizens, who realize the great benefits that will come to the state in the form of a new stadium. It is not only a University affair, but for many uses for all.

Upon the completion of the stadium, the city will be able to bring the Olympic games there. With a seating capacity of 60,000, it would be easily the largest place in the country to hold the games, as well as one of the best.

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 13.—Figures for the year's world series, given out today by John E. Bruce, secretary of the National commission, show that the attendance, for the game, was as great as in last year's series. They place the 1920 series as the highest in the records for the game, however. The approximate figures for 1919 and 1920 follow:

1919. Total attendance 1,783,141 (15 games). Total receipts, $2,000,000.

1919. $722,414. National commission's share, $55,189; Each club's share, $146,715; Players' share, from first 5 games, $214,932; $200,340. Winning team's share, $58,097; Losing team's share, $64,163; Each winning player's share, $1,201; Each losing player's share, $2,387; $2,251.

Purse for second and third place teams of each league, $55,750; $55,000. The national commission pointed out that the league and club officials lost at least $100,000 because the series did not go nine games, as the Brooklyn club already had sold tickets to that amount for the two unplayed contests, and will have to refund the money.

Only in 1911, 1912, 1917 and 1919 were the attendance figures for the series exceeded, while only in 1919 were the receipts greater than this year.

Seventeen world series now have been played in modern baseball and the total attendance was 2,431,579. The total receipts $4,669,935.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 12.—(Herald) Groh, crack third baseman of the Cincinnati Reds, accompanied by Mrs. Groh, applied yesterday in United States District Court for a passport to Cuba, where he will play in a series of exhibition games this winter. Groh arrived in Cincinnati last night along with the rest of the players who took the barnstorming trip. All of the players, with the exception of Larry Kopf, departed for their homes last night.

Saturday will be celebrated as "Home Coming Day" at Athens when Athens H. meets Wait H. of Toledo on the gridiron there. Both schools have strong linebacks and the game promises to be hotly contested.

P. H. S. plays Athens later in the season.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 13.—With the appointment of Jack Egan as manager of the Milwaukee club of the American Association for the 1921 campaign, plans are already under way to strengthen the team with new players. Egan was well satisfied with the liberal terms made him by owners of the club and lost no time in signing a contract. He has the nucleus of an excellent club to start with, but hopes to make a trade and perhaps purchase new talent.

URBANA, Ill., Oct. 13.—Development of the line has proved to be a big problem of the 1920 Illinois football season. Followers of the team regard the backfield as far stronger than that of the university had last year, but have felt that this advantage is offset to some extent by a weakness in the line.

Jack Watson, captain of the 1915 team and rated as one of the best line-men who ever were the Orange and Blue, is helping with the line candidates, as is Lundgren and Bellin, both former varsity players. Watson was coach of the Utah Agricultural college team, 1917 champions of the Pacific coast conference. He is taking almost complete charge of the forwards.

ST. PAUL, MINN., Oct. 13.—St. Paul, American Association baseball champions, and Baltimore, winner of the International League flag, met here today in the 6th clash of the "Junior world series."

Undaunted by their three defeats and only one victory at Baltimore, the Saints were determined to win four more games and the series on their home grounds. The Orioles needed only two more successes. Charley Hall was slated to pitch today for the locals, with Jack Bentley or Jack Oden as Donah's probable selection for mound duty.

The Smoke House football squad will practice Thursday evening at 7:30.

opposite the N. and W. freight house on Gallia street.

All the players who expect to play in Sunday's game must be out. The opponents for the Sunday game have not been selected but negotiations are on the Huntington and Columbus teams.

Practicing longer and more diligently Tuesday than since the football season has started, and going to their work in a more determined manner, the P. H. S. athletes realize what they must do Saturday to prevent the Steele High eleven of Dayton from sweeping them.

Steele High in the first contest of this season literally ran away to victory when they romped over Sandusky High 36 to 0. Sandusky as a rule develops a strong eleven, and this year's equal is no exception according to reports.

Steele High has a return of ten lettered veterans this year and their team is virtually unbeatable.

P. H. S. certainly has its work cut out for Saturday, but the boys are game and no doubt will make a splendid showing when they meet their strongest opponents of the season next Saturday.

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 13.—An offer of $200,000 for George Sisler has been turned down, it was learned here today.

Rheumatism's Pains Will Soon Begin

But You Can Do Much to Head Them Off

So many people dread to see the fading of summer, for to those afflicted with Rheumatism it means that the comfort they have enjoyed during the warm season is soon to give way to the pains and pangs of this disease of torture.

Warm weather seems to render the germs of Rheumatism inactive and harmless—but soon they will arouse and renew their furious attacks with all of their old-time vigor.

Are you quite sure that you have ever treated your Rheumatism in an intelligent manner? Doubtless you have tried remedies by the score because the pains are always increasing in severity and are a source of constant suffering. But just here is where you make your mistake, as others have done by the thousands.

Just because your Rheumatism causes so much pain and discomfort you feel that the proper way to treat the disease is to endeavor to get rid of its pains. So you rush for the liniment bottle and begin to rub and rub in a frantic effort to relieve your suffering. And at times, possibly, you get some slight relief.

But did you ever know of anyone ever ridding themselves of this painful disease by the use of liniments or other local treatment?

A disease that can cause so much suffering is not confined to the surface of the skin, and cannot be successfully treated by local remedies. You have but to look around you at the numerous helpless victims of Rheumatism to confirm this statement. Ask any of them and they will tell you that no matter how much liniment they use, each season again finds them in the grip of the disease.

Do you want to have the same experience? Or are you willing to take advantage of a treatment that has been successfully used by many victims?

Many cases of Rheumatism are due to a tiny germ in the blood, which multiplies by the million and carries its pains to different parts of the body. Such cases must be treated through the blood, and the disease germs eradicated before the disease can be conquered.

This is why S. S. S., the fine old blood remedy has given such satisfactory results in the treatment of Rheumatism. It is such a thorough blood cleanser that it removes all foreign substance from the circulation thus clearing it of the germs that cause the disease.

You must first remove from your blood the germs that cause your Rheumatism before you can be free of its pains.

Begin taking S. S. S. today—you can get it at any drug store. And if you wish any special instructions about your own case, our trained physician will take pleasure in giving you any desired information. Write fully to Chief Medical Adviser, 251 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Georgia.

EBBETTS BANS MARQUARD

Pitcher Richard (Rube) Marquard will never play with the Brooklyn National League team again because of his involvement in ticket scalping.

This announcement was made by President Ebbetts at Cleveland Tuesday after the last game of the world series was finished.

Marquard was arrested Saturday in one of the Cleveland hotels on a charge attempting to sell box seats at an exorbitant profit. He was released to permit him to play in the day's game but was later arraigned in court and fined $1 and costs. His appeal followed.

At one time during his big league career Rube established a big league record of winning 19 straight games.

All Cleveland Celebrating

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 13.—With the fifth city of the United States in the matter of population definitely assured of being the first city of the baseball universe for at least 12 months, Cleveland today settled back to enjoyment of the world's championship baseball honors brought here by Jim Dunn's Indians when they defeated the Brooklyn Dodgers 3 to 0 yesterday and captured the annual classic of the professional diamond from the National League champions by one to two games.

Cleveland, 42 years a hanger on in professional baseball, but now the official home of the world series winners turned its thoughts today to devising new ways of showing appreciation of the prowess of the athletes who finally made this city the world's baseball capital.

Although several watches, medals, automobiles, loving cups and half a dozen floral wreaths of unusual size have been presented to the winning players by appreciative fans, Cleveland believes it has done little for the American Leaguers, and is getting ready to let the world know just how it feels about possessing a championship ball club.

The first of a series of celebrations will be held tonight and according to plans, the wilfulness of Cleveland throughout the last four days over its club will be tame and dignified compared with the joy to be displayed.

Mayor Fitzgerald has issued a proclamation calling on all good citizens within walking or riding distance of this metropolis, to be present tonight at Wade Park and pay official homage and tribute to Tris Speaker and his Tribe. The ball players will be the guests of honor, the citizenry is expected to turn out by the thousands, just as it has at the games, and all the high moments of the city will be present to explain to the Indians in detail just how proud Cleveland is of them.

In other words, Cleveland plans to "out-look" and show the world what real celebrating is.

An official dinner for the players with the city officials as hosts and query one in the blue book as guests is another affair which probably will take place in a day or two.

Cleveland baseball is a sport and not business and the fans, tied up for nearly half a century with clubs never finishing higher than second, expect to crowd 42 years of appreciation, joy, enthusiasm and celebration into the one year of supremacy, which was assured them by Stanley Coveleskie yesterday. When the players go home they probably will be honored further, for Sandusky already is arranging a big home coming for Elmer Smith.

From the time little Joe Sewell made his wonderful stop of Kennedy's grounder, ending the series, and Tris Speaker climbed into the stands to kiss his gray-haired mother, Cleveland has been in a fever. The name of every player is on the lips of every fan, but standing out above all are Tris Speaker, Stanley Coveleskie, Elmer Smith, Bill Wambagans, George Burns, Walter Mulls, Jim Bagby and Steve O'Neill, the men whose individual feats brought the championship here.

Coveleskie pitched himself into the world series ball of fame by throwing back the Dodgers three successive times, and also equaled some of the greatest pitching feats in history. Only one man, Christy Mathewson, has surpassed the Clevelander's work in the biggest games in baseball. Mathewson pitched three shutout victories last in 1905. Coveleskie pitched three games, allowed two runs, 15 hits, marked only two men, and what is most remarkable of all, threw the sphere platforn for an average of only 57 times each game. In his first contest, which he won 3 to 1, he hurled the ball 85 times. His second game resulted in 86 throws to the catcher and yesterday he flung the ball at the batters 90 times. Better records have been made during the regular season, but few, if any, pitched have equaled his record in the world championship games, where the strain stress on each player is multiplied ten fold over the stress of season games. Bill Hinton, Urban Pabst, Jack Coombs, Rube Adams and Joe Wood are the only other hurlers to win three games in one world series.

Cleveland's superiority over the National Leaguers was evident in the series, for the American League champions out hit, out pitched, out played and out gassed their senior circuit rivals.

Coming into the series with a pitching staff considered the best in either league and noted for its size, Brooklyn went out with a battered group of hurlers, only two of whom, Tris Speaker and Smith, were able to pitch winning ball. And Grimes and Smith got their last

With the ball Cleveland bused up a team average of 24 to 30 for Brooklyn an advantage of 20 to 200. However, few will contend Cleveland's superiority derived at critical moments.

In strategy, Brooklyn repeatedly tried to ambush the Indians, but each time the tomahawk came back over the mark and added another scalp to the string collected by the Tribe. Only in one branch of inside baseball did Brooklyn show real superiority so far as the spectator could see. That was in the almost unerring ability of Catcher Miller to catch the Indians' hit and run and base stealing signals. Five times in the four games here the Brooklyn backstop called the turn by signalling for pinch outs on these plays. Each time the play was broken up and the Cleveland base runner easily trapped.

The pitching superiority of Cleveland's trio of pitchers is indicated in the scores of the games. Hacking up Coveleskie's almost unparalleled work Walter Mulls came through with 15-13 shut out innings, including a three hit game, and Jim Bagby pitched two good contests, winning one and losing one. George Uhlen, second string hurler, pitched good ball on his short appearances, only Caldwell who was knocked out of the box in one inning, falling down.

Smith twirled two line games for the Dodgers, but had the misfortune to be pitched against Mulls in one and lost it. Grimes turned in a shut out victory and then twice was knocked out of the box. The other pitchers were hampered without favor.

The world's series, despite the possibilities of the result, brought out some of the greatest baseball in history. Numerous records of minor importance were broken, but standing above all were Cleveland's' unassisted triple play, and Elmer Smith's home run with the bases full.

Two great pitching battles were included and terrific hitting when long hits were needed to win the game from the Cleveland bats.

The Brooklyn club today was on its way back home, where it will disband until next season. The eastern players were generous in praise for their competitors, frankly admitting that the best team won.

President John Heydler of the National League, and President B. B. Johnson, of the American League, today both expressed satisfaction over the series.

"I am happy because little Tris Speaker came through for little Jimmy Dunn and little Jimmie came through for Cleveland," said Johnson.

In letters sent today to President Dunn and Manager Speaker, Mr. Heydler declared his belief that the best team won. He referred at length to the heroism of the series and the sportsmanship in the Brooklyn club letting Joe Sewell play and the Cleveland club permitting Sheehan to get in the line up when Jimmy Johnston was hurt. Neither player was eligible.

HONORING ITS PATRON

By way of celebrating the discovery of America, by the great navigator from whom the order takes its name, the local council of the Knights of Columbus initiated, Sunday, the largest class since it was established.

Columbus sailed from Spain, in 1492, to prove his theory that the world was round, and first sighted land of the new world on October 12th.

It is rather singular that the great order named after him should accomplish its most distinctive and brilliant work in sailing across the same ocean in an opposite direction. During the war it organized a camp and field service, which it carried on in truly colossal proportions. It was at the actual battle front, however, that this service ministered with most excellent efficiency and earned the unstinted admiration and gratitude of the soldier boys. Since the war it has continued this service by finding employment and conducting schools for the care and training of service men. In Cincinnati alone these schools have an enrollment of over 5,000.

A remarkable feature about the service is that though it was rendered everywhere lavishly and without price, so carefully was it guarded against that from the funds which a generous and patriotic public gave it, there remains therefrom an unexpended and unappropriated balance of five million dollars, which the order has offered to the American Legion for the building of a memorial hall in Washington City, which it is felt can be best done as there is no further need for it as relief work.

ADVERTISING AND BUSINESS

THE erroneous idea is again set afloat that advertising does nothing more than take money from one man and give it to another, by merely diverting business from one channel to another, observes the Editor and Publisher. "If your advertising gets people to brush their teeth with So-as-you-don't, as a reckless writer, 'it's the same thing as getting them to do it with So-as-you-do. The main idea is to keep the teeth clean, and the advertising of 40 kinds of tooth paste is a sad waste of dollars."

This is as far from true philosophy as it is from practical business sense. As well might it be asserted that where one blade of wheat will grow there is no excuse for two, that since one razor will shave there should be no more on the market or that because one make of automobile gives good service it should have a monopoly.

The false philosophy fails to take into consideration the vital fact that competitive advertising, even more than competitive production, is the great constructive force in modern business.

Advertising creates demand; competitive advertising develops public taste and compels constant improvement of products.

If 40 persons are using 40 kinds of tooth paste today where one person was using one kind 40 years ago, the benefit to the public as well as that to the many manufacturers is due to competitive advertising.

Competitive advertising is not duplication or waste. It is the speaking soul of business. It is at once the school of ever widening public demand and the spur to better and more varied production. The line of business that is dominated by monopoly is dead or dying, and it has no message. But for virile up-building competition there would be no advertising at all.

LESSON AND INCIDENT

THOMAS MOTT OSBORN, who by virtue of his inequity of the superintendency of Sing Sing penitentiary and his activity in advocating reform of prisoners, has come to be regarded as something of an authority on the latter, has been in Cincinnati, spreading his new gospel.

As he expands his idea down there it is that more consideration be shown prisoners and convicts and as they are not always incorrigible, but persons most frequently lapsed into crime they should be led into more honorable ways of making a living.

Abuse and mistreatment of persons either charged with or convicted thereof has become so universally the rule and fact that any rude departure therefrom would shock the public sense of mercy and decency. Therefore it is not apparent why criminals should receive any more consideration than is already vouchsafed them. As for reforming them, that's an entirely different proposition. It is well, in a way, reformation should be worked, if possible, but accented reformation ordinarily works not ill. It too often creates a maudlin sympathy that erodes the prisoner into a martyr rather than an offender and leaves justice go unsatisfied of its toll.

The primary object of penal laws is not to convert the guilty, but to punish them and by the force and power of the example deter others from committing wrong, as the law designates wrong.

Presidential Campaigns

By Frederic J. Haskin

The Follies of 1912

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 12.—Those who are discouraged by the relatively unexciting character of national politics this year, and who are inclined to fear that we never will have another good rousing presidential campaign, should consider recent history.

The presidential show of 1908 was just such a fizzle from the dramatic and spectacular standpoint as the present one seems to be; but how easily did 1912 redeem the reputation of the American politicians for staging a first-class show!

Several salient characteristics of our national political game were illustrated in the 1912 campaign. One of them is that a hot campaign is not made hot by burning issues, but rather by burning personal animosities. Burning issues are no longer introduced into presidential campaigns—a fact of which the present one should afford all the proof that anyone requires. The really colorful questions are ducked by both parties by mutual consent, and if they are brought forward at all, it is by some third party which is in no danger of electing its ticket and having to meet them. The somewhat meretricious glow which is given by the politicians to the discussion of current problems might be compared to the firework which you see in the woods on summer nights. That is, it is a faint illumination given off by dead and rotten matter, and is capable of deceiving those but the uninitiate.

Platforms Alike

So it was in 1912. It is true that Mr. Roosevelt ran on a "social justice" platform which contained many planks of radical sound, if somewhat vague meaning. It is also true that many of the men who voted for him were sincere liberals who believed in that platform. But the thing which made the campaign interesting, which split the Republican party, while one, elected Woodrow Wilson, and stirred the country to its depths, was a temperamental difference between Mr. Taft and Mr. Roosevelt.

From the viewpoint of political expediency, Roosevelt was undoubtedly right. The temper of the country was relatively radical in 1912. It had had four years of conservative government and it wanted a change. The way to elect a president was to be at least ostensibly radical. And Roosevelt was as radical by temperament as Taft was conservative. In the specific measures which they were prepared to advocate they did not differ substantially. A current Democratic cartoon shows them as a couple of street brawlers battling up before a justice of the peace, who is trying in vain to find out what they are fighting about.

Nobody could answer that question with any clarity, but how they did sweat! Mr. Roosevelt leaped into the ring with both fists going. His talent for personal incentive was never displayed to better advantage. Mr. Taft, distressed and outraged by such unmanly tactics, at first stuck in a dignified manner to his favorite subject of the constitution of the United States. But finally, realizing that one cannot be a perfect gentleman and a competent politician at the same time, he turned ponderously upon his opponent with the inspiring remark that even a cat will fight when cornered. He gave a good account of himself, too, and the result would not have been so certain had not an excited mental derelict plunged a bullet through the referee's shoulder at the crucial point in the campaign. That, together with Armstrong's and the singing of "Onward Christian Soldiers" insured a sufficient split in the Republican vote to make Democratic victory a dead certainty.

Dramatic Conventions

The dramatic quality of the 1912 events began with the conventions and ended only with the announcement of the final result. The Republican convention with its fight over contested delegates was one of the bitterest in the history of the country. One excited leader declared that if a personal collision should occur on the floor a hundred men would be killed before order could be restored. He was so confident of this carnage that he refused to allow his wife to attend the convention the first day. The event was much less exciting than that. In fact, nobody so much as slapped anybody else's face; but the contests were hotly contested and Taft won over two hundred of them while Roosevelt won about nineteen. Then Mr. Roosevelt, bolted, with the announcement that the fight was on between the "people" and the corrupt politicians. Came then the Bull Moose meeting in Chicago with its Marathon theory, its complete harmony, and its crusading spirit, inspired only by the question in some minds as to just how and why Mr. La Follette had been ditched.

The Democratic convention in Baltimore was hardly less exciting, and here again the reason was that intense and conflicting personal interests were involved. Everyone saw that a Democratic nomination was very likely to amount to an election. Both Mr. Wilson and Mr. Clark had supporters who were ready to yell and vote to the last for their heroes. The situation became truly dramatic as Clark forced his way slowly to within a few votes of the coveted goal, and then slowly fell away again until the charge of the Illinois delegation, under Roger Sullivan, settled the battle in favor of the New Jersey professor.

West and East

The three-cornered vote of 1912 shed some interesting light on the political complexion of various sections of the country. It showed that the widest cleavage in America is that between the west and the northeast. It was the west that voted for Roosevelt, that marched to Armstrong's singing hymns—that, in a word, took seriously to heart the hope of a rejuvenation of American politics and of an effective program of liberal reform. It was the northeast which stood fast behind Mr. Taft, unaffected by the winds of change and change. It was the solid south that elected Woodrow Wilson, solely because he was a Democrat. It was no more carried away by the moral fervor of the occasion than was the northeast. In a word, this note demonstrated what has become vastly more apparent since then, that the west is the true home of liberalism and radicalism in America. The west believes in change. The west has natural resources and it wants them conserved. The east wants the status quo. The east has money massed in private ownership and wants to keep it there. The fact that the south is Democratic by habit and the north Republican for the same reason has lost its significance. The sectional line of political cleavage in the United States, so far as there is one, has turned at right angles and now approximately coincides with the Mississippi river.

Bamboo Shoots Palatable Food

Bamboo shoots are considered edible in China, and it is said that when they are of good variety they form a vegetable dish that has no equal.

Cuttlefish Used as Food

The sun-dried cuttlefish or devil fish of the Greek coast with suckers intact looks like a football. The shredded part is more tempting than the tentacles.

Q. Is more coffee being drunk now than before prohibition went into effect? C. P. G.

A. The Department of Commerce says that more coffee was drunk during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1920, than in any previous year on record. The per capita consumption was 12.7 pounds, while that of the year before was 9.99 pounds.

Q. I claimed exemption from the draft during the war because I was an alien. Can I take out citizenship papers now? A. J. H.

A. The War Department says that if, on account of being an alien, you claimed exemption from the draft for the United States Army during the World War, you cannot obtain citizenship in the United States.

Q. I would like to know how many miles an hour a homing pigeon will average in flying 150 miles? W. C.

A. Homing pigeons have been known to fly over 30 yards per second, but the average velocity is less than half that amount. The course of a homing pigeon is usually direct, and would probably average about 20 miles an hour, taking about six hours flying time to make the 150 miles.

Q. In speaking of a pine forest, is it understood that all the trees are pine? O. M. H.

A. In practice, a forest in which 80 per cent of the trees are of one species, is called by the name of that species.

Q. How does kerosene compare with coal for heating? I. J. M.

A. Kerosene contains more heating energy than coal when considered on a weight basis. A pound of kerosene contains about 12,000 heat units, whereas a pound of high grade coal contains about 8,000. The cost of the various fuels for heating purposes depends largely upon the relative supply.

Q. How old is the office of Justice of the Peace? I. J. H.

A. The institution of justice of the peace is very old. They were known in England prior to 1321 when they were called conservators of the peace, and were chosen in every county for the freeholders from among the principal men of the county.

Q. Is the number of silos in use increasing? H. G.

A. Based on estimate on a report from Indiana, the number has nearly tripled in five years. In 1913, there was one silo to every 22 farms. In 1918 there was one silo to every 9 farms.

Q. Who wrote "Sweet Alice Ben Bolt"? A. W. M.

A. Thomas Dunn English, an American physician and man of letters, published this poem in William's News Year Mirror in 1832. As set to music by Nelson Kneass it became widely known both in England and America.

Q. What verse in the Bible contains all the letters of the alphabet? G. L. H.

A. Ezra VII-21 contains all the letters of the English alphabet except "j" which was formerly written as "i".

Q. What was the first real news sent by telegraph? M. J. H.

A. The first news ever carried by telegraph was the nomination of Polk. The line extended only from Washington to Baltimore.

Q. What are the dimensions of the Liberty Bell? J. B. D.

A. The measurements of the Liberty Bell in Independence Hall are: Length around the lip—19 feet, length around the crown—7 feet, 6 inches; from lip to crown around the inside—3 feet, 6 inches; over the crown—2 feet, 3 inches; length of the clapper—3 feet, 2 inches; weight—2,460 pounds.
